

C2G Terminal Service

Doing more with less just got better! C2G is a Net Server software product simplifies branch server management, improves identity and access management, reduces storage management costs; provide a rich Web platform, and offers cost-effective server virtualization.

Through C2G you can access any type of application from Server with Normal Broadband speed net connection through Personal Computer any where in the World. One of the key futures of this product is cost-effective; you will get best speed to access your application from server with normal Broadband connection and to improve branch office management.

Who need this product?

Small corporate organization that having various branches with different remote location and want to incorporate their branches through software application at Head Office server.

The company can reduce costs and administrative overhead while maintaining its level of service to branch office clients.

Providing better availability and manageability of distributed data for remote locations of small corporate organization. Organization are constantly looking for innovative ways to more effectively manage their IT spend while increasing our support of the business

You can access any type of application from server with normal broadband connection. Application configuration is totally user defined. C2G also support printing features Windows base printing and Dos base printing.